Susan Orlean comes to Georgia Southern!

Join journalist and author Susan Orlean for this special presentation brought to you by the 2020 Georgia International Conference on Information Literacy!

She will take attendees through The Library Book, her latest, best-selling novel and Reese Witherspoon's January book of the month. The story follows the Los Angeles Public Library, its memories and patrons, and the importance of libraries in our own lives. After the presentation, attendees will get the chance to ask questions during the Q&A and attend a book signing with the author!

The Center for Social Gerontology Conference is only one month away!

October 11, 2019 • 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Nessmith-Lane Center • Statesboro, GA

This one-day training event promotes successful aging and positive social change. By providing hands-on workshops and sessions, the Center for Social Gerontology Conference offers resources for enhancing the quality of life of older adults, their families, caregivers and communities.

This year, the conference will begin with a welcome and morning Tai Chi with Gwentyth Johnson! Students and seniors ages 65 and up can attend the conference at a discounted rate. Those interested in registering may click here.

The conference is hosted by Georgia Southern University's College of Behavioral and Social Sciences and the Division of Continuing Education, and is sponsored by the Georgia Gerontology Society and Magnolia Coastlands Area Health Education Center (AHEC).

For more information from the Division of Continuing Education, please contact conference specialist Michel Blicht at 912-478-2584. The full, tentative schedule at a glance is available on the conference's website.
